

SHELTON YACHT CLUB

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Shelton Yacht Club, 701 East Pine, P.O. Box 2270, Shelton, WA 98584 (360) 426-9476

- The applicant must be at least 21 years of age, a citizen or permanent resident of the United States, of good moral character, and a boat owner.
- The initiation fee is $200.00 per family. Family is defined as members of the same household. If there are co-owners of a boat and all want to become members, then each family will need to apply for membership. Annual membership dues are $190.00 plus $64.00 for four Ham & Oyster Dinner tickets (for couples) or $32.00 for two tickets (for singles).
- Annual membership dues must be paid by October 1st for the following year (January-December). When members are installed during the year, they are required to pay a prorated amount for the remaining months of the year.
- Upon acceptance and installation, a new member shall receive an SYC membership card, a new SYC burgee, access to the Membership Only portion of the SYC website, and identification pins for each member.

The applicant agrees to the following if elected to membership:

1. To observe safe practices in boating and other SYC activities.
2. To be watchful and ready to give aid to others when needed.
3. To govern their conduct and that of their family and guests so as to reflect favorably on SYC and the boating community.
4. To keep the beaches and water clean.
5. To comply with SYC bylaws and rules, and assist in SYC projects.
6. To promote the sport of yachting and the science of navigation.

Before being voted into membership, the applicant must own a boat and must attend six SYC functions, as follows:
